

Just Like a Man

Paul N. Dion / Allen M. Dion

Why is the role of a woman in the church
Madonna or servant?
Why can't a woman follow her own plan?
Dare to make a stand,
Just like a man.

There are other ways and easier roles to play
To be in service to the world and keep within God's plan,
Than be like a man.

Where is the peace of knowing one's true call?
Assistant or leader?
Not every woman needs a helping hand.
She knows where she stands.
Just like a man.

I foresee the days when women are not afraid
To go beyond tradition, frame their fate with their own hands.
Just like a man.

Change begins one step at a time, not by staying in line.
This woman may lead us.
Just like a man.

Just like a man.
