

Kesselring's Threat

Paul N. Dion / Allen M. Dion

We won the fight.
It's a satisfying night.

Your excellency, we are at this moment destroying the Bolsheviks
And removing this communist threat.
Your house will now be safe.

Please excuse us, as I know the hour is late, but we must speak.

I am Kesselring. I bring greetings from our leader.
I can speak on his behalf. I am his chief of staff.
I am here to demand that you follow our course
As we glorify and purify and you'd be wise to give your support.

Let's look for the very best arrangement,
We have goodwill towards the church.
It might all sound absurd.
I don't know what you've heard.

Why should you trust me? You hardly know me.
Together, we will make Germany strong
And there's a reason you can't get this wrong.
My leader is a Catholic.
