

Pacelli's Address

Paul N. Dion / Allen M. Dion

Today the human spirit throughout the world is in chains.
People are bankrupt, financially, politically, and definitely spiritually.

Now is the time for people to join our Fuhrer in his struggles to make Germany stronger.
And bring honor to the Fatherland.

A strong Italy begins with strong leaders.
I am the man for the job.
But now I need your support, and I will accept nothing less than one hundred percent.
For that, I will make the trains run on time.

Religion, faith, and trust in God are the defense against failure and despair.
Slow and steady wins the race as well as piety, our society needs our prayers.
Let us pray.
