

The Papal Keys

Paul N. Dion / Allen M. Dion

You must eat. Take some food, some hot soup, and feel well.
You need to take care of yourself.

Leave me alone, leave me alone now.
It is my time to die now, time now to die.

Don't ever say that word now. Please never speak that word, I beg you.

It is my time, so let me be.

I'll take charge of everything if you want me to.
I'll take care of you, this I swear.
Do you want me to?

Yes, I need you to take care of me now,
And take over my affairs and hide all of my weaknesses.
It's never been done before, the Papal keys given to a nun.

Leave me in charge. Leave me in charge now.
It is my time to lead now, time now to lead.

You will face hate and anger.
Your enemies will abound.
So be careful.

I'll take charge of everything as you want me to.
I'll take care of you.
This, I swear.
