

Welcome to the Vatican

Paul N. Dion / Allen M. Dion

Welcome to the Vatican.
You'll fit right in or push your way in.

So have no fear.
In six months or maybe in a year,
You'll regain your former position
By making new connections
Or going in new directions.

Pace yourself and be patient,
Then your time will be well spent.
Be discreet,
And build up their trust.

Remember, the Vatican
Is mostly filled with men.
They don't share their power with a woman,
No, not even a nun.
That's not how things are done
In the Vatican.

Cardinal Tisserant is a force to be feared.
Make him an ally, and your way will be cleared.
He is near the top, has the ear of the Pope, but he won't stand aside.

He has political clout and unlikely to let you change the way his game is played.
Better to stay out of his way.
